POLITICAL MURDER IN FLORIDA.

The daily papers of Tuesday last brought to us the too familiar announcement that another political murder had been committed in the South. John Bird, a colored man who had been to Jacksonville in response to a summons from the United States District court, to testify in the contested Congressional election case of Goodrich against Bullock, (2nd District,) while returning to his home in Madison county, Florida, was brutally murdered. A few days prior to this, a colored man named Webster, was accused of throwing a stone into a crowd of white men from whose blows he had probably escaped on the out going train and striking a bystander. For this unpardonable offense, Webster, who was a train-hand, was awaited at Waycross, Ga., where the fracas took place the day previous, taken from the train on its down trip and lynched.

When John Bird was giving the testimony for which he had to suffer death, Mr. Goodrich the white contestant member of Congress from the second district of Florida, was making a plea for the appointment of a colored man from Florida to a comparatively humble position, in one of the departments. Seeing that colored men are freely losing their lives in his interest, we think Mr. Goodrich should and will earnestly use his influence to have worthy colored men appointed to positions and he should with equal earnestness, use his influence to have the murderers of innocent, defenseless colored men punished. We now feel sure that Mr. Goodrich will get his seat, for violence and bloodshed are the last arguments of defeated coward. The white chivalry of Madison county, Florida, may continue to murder colored republican witnesses, they cannot stay thereby the honest verdict of the impartial majority in the next House of Representatives, which, as we believe, will be F. S. Goodrich has been duly elected to the 51st Congress, notwithstanding the fraudulent certificates now held by Bullock, Democrat.

THE EXECUTIVE POWER.

It has been made clear to the colored people of the country, that the chief magistrate of the nation has no power to execute the laws upon the statute books. A careful reading of the Constitution of the United States will show that the power of the President is limited; that Congress alone has power to make laws for the protection of citizens and to direct the President to have them administered. That the States rights doctrine, which is indirectly or it not directly recognizes, makes the President powerless to act in case of a riot or a rebellion in any of the States whose constitution do not conflict with the constitution of the United States. That the Governor and legislatures of the several States of the union, constituting the Executive and law making powers of those States and not the President and the Congress of the United States who have jurisdiction only over the federal laws can, if they will, remedy existing evils in the systems in the various local self governments.

Mr. Bruce's able expose of a popular error into which erratic and misguided politicians and agitators have fallen, will if carefully examined and considered by the masses of our people greatly benefit them and relieve the President of much embarrassment and annoyance from visiting delegations who wish to declare war on the South. Let us rather appeal to Congress to enact wholesome and stringent laws whereby we can exercise all our rights as citizens and then we will be in position to change the anatomy of those state governments where our liberties and privileges are abridged. Let us begin at the root of the tree. Let all our people unite in a general petition to the national legislature for the opportunity to exercise without fear or intimidation our rights as citizens. Let us be in earnest about this thing

BAD GOVERNMENT IN HAWAII.

On the first page we publish a graphic letter from the Hawaiian patriot F. J. Testa to our friend Celso, Cesar Moreno, about the Missionary Rule imposed by brutal force and treason on the 30th day of June 1887, upon the primitive, good natured, but too patient and too timid Hawaiian people. This rule of missionarism, is the negation of God and of all the rights of men of reason and decency.

If Torquemada the ferocious chief of the inquisition in Spain should come out of his grave, he would certainly acknowledge that the Methodist, Baptist, Mormons and other sects of missionaries with their accomplices, have by far surpassed him in religious intolerance, depredation, intrigues, greediness, treason and ferocity.

The Government of Hawaii under the absolute control of the unscrupulous missionaries, is the sum of all iniquities, it is in fact a moral, economical and political pestilence, which is more detrimental to the Hawaiian Race and Country than the terrible physical leprosy.

This is the truth that has always been concealed to the State and Navy Departments of the United States, and by logical consequence to the President by the Diplomatic Consular and Naval Officers sent on duty to Hawaii. Conspicuous in this not highly honorable work have been the U. S. Ministers resident, little Jim Comly and Merrill, aided by the two missionaries the Rev. H. A. P. Carter, Hawaiian Minister in Washington and the barber, Nevil Armstrong, Hawaiian Consul in New York.

The missionaries have plundered enough in the Hawaiian Islands to be able to pay well for their abject underlings.

The irresolute King Kalakaua is badly represented in the United States; the Rev. H. A. P. Carter, with his creole wife is the laughing stock in Washington, and the barber, Armstrong is a public ridicule in New York.

It would be a burning shame for the United States Government if such a "bad Government in Hawaii" should any longer be upheld by the political, moral and naval influence of the great American Republic for the exclusive benefit of a clique of renegade missionaries and their accomplices.

Let us sincerely hope that President Harrison and Secretary of State Blaine will see through it and put an end to it "Pro bono publico."

A VEXED QUESTION.

There never was a question fraught with so much interest and importance to the well being and prosperity of this Republic, and its institutions, as that question improperly styled the Negro Question. It is attracting the attention of the whole country, and its settlement will require the united wisdom and statesmanship of men of all races, and all parties. The American people are now reaping the whirlwind which is following close upon the heels of human slavery, and its concomitant evils. The Negro, who, by his labor, industry and patient toil has laid the foundation upon which Americans have reared the grandest government on earth. He cannot now be cast down, or eliminated from the body politic. His blood and his bones are at the base of the superstructure, and his destiny is the white man's destiny in this country.

He has a good case in equity and the Eternal Judge, who sits in that Court, will deal justly and fairly with him, his heirs and assigns forever.

A strong and powerful Government likes that of the United States, would bring down upon it the condemnation of the civilized world, if it should attempt by Legislative jugglery to rob the Negro of his truthful heritage, or take any unfair or cowardly advantage of us at this time. The narrowness of the white men who oppress, and defraud the negro is the principal cause of the deplorable condition in which the South finds itself to day. Had they remembered that "Righteousness exalteth a Nation and that Sin is a reproach to any people," the Solid South would have had no existence, peace and prosperity would now bless that section of our country, the union of States would be more cordial and lasting and every man upon the continent would be a man in deed and in fact.

TO BE TRIED BY THEIR ENEMIES.

What a strong arm has the great and powerful government of the United States! Its arm is not only muscular and sinewy but it is long and far reaching. The power of the government is great, and to be a citizen under it, it the citizen be white, is to enjoy the blessing that a powerful and mighty nation can lavishly bestow. The essential requisite, however, to a participation in the blessing and benefits of this government is that the citizen be white.

Against its black citizen the powerful arm of the nation is ready and willing to strike stunning blows; and for this purpose law and reason are stained, magnified and deminished to strengthen the hands of tyranny against the black man. Injustice and tyranny may be shown upon the black man without a step taken for his protection by the government. Should he rise up in his own defense and attempt to strike down tyranny imposed upon him by white citizens, the strong arm of the United States government is at once uplifted to strike him down. The strong arm of the party wielded by the party of great professions of love of progress and freedom reaches out to adjacent islands and strikes down its colored people for daring to assert their manhood against the tyranny of white men who are citizens of the United States. Not content with interfering with the blacks who assert their manhood rights on the islands, this great nation seizes irons and brings to the city of Baltimore, the hot bed of Negro hate, for trial, men whose race and color is in the monumental city, always a presumption of guilt that cannot be overcome by reason or evidence.

The colored people on the Navassa Islands were subject to outrages and to a tyranny from which they could find no relief. The strong arm of the government of the United States availed not for them. In their despair they struck for liberty themselves. The administration that should impartially inquire into the matter and learn whether or not the colored men at Navassa were acting in self-defense, seizes the unfortunate Negroes and brings them to a city where injustice to them is assured from the outset. The white men who ill-treat the Negroes are free and under the protection of the nation. We have the right to expect of the Republican administration a closer observance of the rights of its citizens black or white than is shown in the shameful treatment of the alleged criminals of Navassa.

THE BEE IS RIGHT.

THE SOUTHERN NEGROES ENDORSE ITS SENTIMENTS.

The BEE is always right although its enemies are numerous among those who hide corruption and who would advise the race to do dangerous acts and such things that they will not do themselves. The "Beaumont Recorder" published at Beaumont, Texas, among other things in commenting on an editorial in the BEE a few weeks ago and reproducing the article says:

"We notice that some of our Negro exchanges, North of Mason and Dixon's line, when discussing southern outrages, advise the colored people to retaliate with the gun, pistol and knife. We clip an article from the Washington BEE, this week which has the following about it. Negroes of Texas, read it and govern yourselves accordingly. The BEE is a staunch friend of the race and has no desire to see its people rush head long into trouble, when they can avoid it."

LEARN SENSE.

The editor of a patent outside alias the New South a paper published at Beaufort, S. C., should certainly learn some sense. They ought to know the difference between criticism and abuse. The moment a colored editor criticizes a supposed big Negro, some journalistic demagogues like the editor of the New South will bob up and in a long winded article declare that our leaders are being abused. Negroes who pose as leaders and can't stand criticisms should have remained on the cotton field. Mr. John R. Lynch is not infallible and if he or his friends don't like what we said we can be seen between the hours of 8 and 10 a. m., at 1109 I street, n. w. There are thousands connected with the N and all the matter they could be set up in six hours by our devil. Our advice to the editors of the New South is to turn their attention to picking cotton as we believe that it would be more in keeping with what they are cut out for.

There are 8,000 colored people in Little Rock, Ark., of which 5,000 own their homes.

Editor J. C. Duke, one of the most learned Negro editors in this country has changed the name of the Hornet to that of Echo.

Lawyer H. C. Smith of Chattanooga, Tenn., will arrive in the city in a few days from Ohio. Mr. Smith is the editor of the Agitator.

The "Journalist" of New York city, of this week, contains a fine cut of Mr. T. Thomas Fortune, with a sketch of his brilliant career, by Mr. Jerome B. Peterson. The cut gives Mr. Fortune a classic appearance and its publication in such an able and well known paper as the "Journalist" is an evidence of recognition of men of worth and merit, irrespective of color, race or condition.

COL. MURRELL HONORED.

THE NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS GREET THEIR CHIEFTAINS.

(From New Jersey Evening Journal)

Mr. A. B. Cooley, president of the First District Colored Republican club, and Col. Wm. Murrell, formerly editor of the Trumpet, was tendered a rousing reception last evening at the hands of the colored Republican club and the "Assembly," a social organization composed of colored residents of lower Jersey City. The happy event took place in the joint headquarters of both organizations 100 Hudson Street.

The apartments are neatly fitted up, and are under the immediate supervision of Thomas Scott, president of "The Assembly." The front room is handsomely furnished and ornamented with a library that contains among other interesting volumes, copies of Mr. A. B. Cooley's book containing accounts of his adventures while traveling around the world. The rear parlor was last evening converted into a pretty dining hall. In the center stood a table freighted with a variety of tempting eatables. The invited guests enjoyed fare, the piquant Roman punch, and above all, the rattling speeches of Messrs. Cooley and Murrell. The reception was a recognition of the services which both gentlemen have rendered the Republican party. Mr. Cooley is one of the most persistent workers in the First District and Col. Murrell is stamping the State for Genl. Grubbs. Many of the invited guests made speeches and the evening was one of thorough enjoyment. There were present Chas. Kennedy, Joseph Jordan, of Philadelphia, John Cori, James Cort, George A. Baker, Manuel Puentes, President Thomas Scott, Lewis C. Bullock, Z. DeCline, Henry Watson, Robert Runsted, Charles Fields, of Brooklyn, and Joseph Mills. The First District Colored Republican club has a membership of nearly 200.

DOUGLASS AND ASTWOOD.

THE FORMER DID INVITE THE LATTER TO CALL

New York, Oct. 21, 1889.

Editor of the Bee:
In our issue of the 19th inst., I notice a reference to ex-consul Astwood and myself which does Mr. Astwood injustice. Mr. Douglass did invite Mr. Astwood to call and see him, and the letter was addressed to me and I have it now. Mr. Astwood did not come to New York after me for the purpose of calling upon Mr. Douglass. We were on the Saturday night train together and having missed my southern connection, Knoxville at Washington I prevailed upon Mr. Astwood to call upon Mr. Douglass with me, which he did, protesting all the time that he did not care to do it. Mr. Astwood asked nothing of Mr. Douglass. The statement to the contrary is a falsehood. It was I who asked Mr. Douglass to withdraw his objection to Mr. Astwood, based upon the charges concocted by his son Charles, and which Mr. Douglass indicated his willingness to do, but which I do not believe he did do.

There is an honest and a dishonest way to fight any man.
